THE VERSATILE GAS KETTLE BRAAI

The CADAC Leisure Chef is the 57cm addition to the popular CADAC Chef Range of portable barbecues with interchangeable tops. With 50% more cooking area than the Carri Chef, it is the ideal alternative to a charcoal kettle BBQ with lots more options. It has a half pressed grid, coated in porcelain enamel and a half reversible griddle with a ribbed and a flat side. This is non-stick coated for easy cleaning and for a choice of meal preparations from breakfasts to grilling, frying and indirect cooking. Also included is the famous CADAC skottel. Additional surfaces can be bought as optional accessories to make a combination of cooking surfaces. The Leisure Chef features push-button peizo ignition and works off a refillable LP gas cylinder (not included) which is housed neatly in the centre of the condiment tray at the base of the unit. The removable fat pan and drip cup for excess fat, helps to keep the BBQ clean and hygienic. The lid can also be hooked onto the side legs of the BBQ to act as a windshield and splashback.
